Old Testament Reading

Daniel 7: 9-10, 13-14

As I watched,
thrones were set in place,
and an Ancient One took his throne;
his clothing was white as snow,
and the hair of his head like pure wool;
his throne was fiery flames,
and its wheels were burning fire.
A stream of fire issued
and flowed out from his presence.
A thousand thousand served him,
and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him.
The court sat in judgement,
and the books were opened. As I watched in the night visions, I saw one like a human being
coming with the clouds of heaven.
And he came to the Ancient One
and was presented before him.
To him was given dominion
and glory and kingship,
that all peoples, nations, and languages
should serve him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion
that shall not pass away,
and his kingship is one

New Testament Reading

Revelation 1: 4-8

John to the seven churches that are in Asia:

Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Look! He is coming with the clouds;

every eye will see him,

even those who pierced him;

and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail.

So it is to be. Amen.

During Communion the choir will sing 'Above all praise and majesty' by Mendelssohn.

Christmas leaflets: We are hoping to deliver around the parish leaflets advertising Christmas events in Norton. If you feel able to do this, please sign up on the sheet at the back of church against the street(s) you will deliver to. We will then print off the leaflets to give to you. Susan

We are collecting cardboard and kitchen towel centres for our next

Messy Church. We also need jars with lids. If you have any of these, please put them in the box at the back of church or give to Susan Taylor or Ros Pratt.
